Chairman's Report

Chairman Stan Ridgeway stated been keeping an eye on funding regarding the Dorwin's Mill project and we have received the Dorwin's Mill Grant for 80% paid by the state, 10% paid by the county and 10% paid by the town, more to come on this. There was a complaint regarding junk on the pleasant ridge area, Chairman Stan Ridgeway will address the property owner to have this cleaned up.

Public Comment

Jim Kraft had some concerns regarding potters' field and who's responsibly to maintain the gravesites. Sheriff Joel Werner spoke in regards to checking up on each town and asking if anyone has any questions and talked about general updates within our community. Dale Heck had some questions regarding the AVT/UTV ordinances, these questions were answered.

Cemetery Ordinance

Stan Ridgeway wrote up a cemetery ordinance for the Town of Durand. This ordinance includes no new private cemeteries allowed. Will approve this cemetery ordinance at next meeting once the green burial has been added to the ordinance.

Update Address Signs

Chairman Stan Ridgeway spoke with John and Patty Wayne about installing the signs. A plan will need to be in place once the installing process is ready. Still working on getting the address signs ordered and a list of all the address within the Town of Durand. This purchase will be recorded under the ARPA funds.
